Senate Agenda 12/3
Associated Students UCSB 76th Senate

Zoom Link

Minutes/Actions recorded by: Sydney Arbolado, Summer Tucker, Liliana Dritz. CALL TO ORDER by Evan Sussman, First President Pro-Tempore at 6:34 PM.
This meeting was called to order at 6:34PM.

A) MEETING BUSINESS

"Before we begin, we call for students to acknowledge that the lands that the University of California locations were built upon were expropriated & founded upon exclusions and erasures of Indigenous people's human rights throughout California. UCSB is built on Chumash Land, specifically that of the non-federally recognized Barbareno tribe. As an association that pushes the student bodies' voices to the forefront, we should aim to make strides past just acknowledgment to those who continue to fight for their right to be recognized & respected as the original stewards of this land. I ask you all to dedicate time & care to personal education & to advocate for justice alongside Indigenous peoples."

Elizabeth Lane (6:39PM)

- She/her, neighborhood engagement coord for Edible Campus program
- Have been working with AS and EJ and Enri the past few months to design a gardening workshop series for undergrads
- To promote food security/sustainability
- Have requested some funding for that
- Our program is focused on demystifying sustainable agriculture gardening by making it as accessible as possible
- People don't know they can start their own garden in a balcony, dorm, apartment
- Host a lot of workshops, but with more funding we could help students start their own garden
- Often they don't get to take home the pots or seeds
- With more funding, we could really expand our reach and help students build community and learn how to grow their own food
- The series would also end up with an intro to outdoor gardening workshop as well
- Our program allows undergrads to add their own garden plot at greenhouse and gardening project

Wahidullah

- Super cool project
- I don’t know if you guys have a timeline, do you guys have expectations to make this sustainable long term, making it under a BCU if it is successful?

Lane

- Think it’d be a great idea
- We host a lot of different workshops and events
- Would be really easy for us, we have preexisting programming and can expand into a long term partnership

Neo Harter (6:43PM)

- Here as a represent of 180 Degrees Consulting
- Minor issue they had with finances
- Directed towards finance committee
- They requested $300 worth of food
- Essentially granted $300 from their understanding, went and bought food, then they received email that finance committee thought it was excessive and got granted $200 instead
- So they went and bought $300 worth of food, under the impression that was given to them, that they were accepted in the meeting, and then later on, that was revised

- They asked me to come to the Senate and basically express the concern that they have, they're a nonprofit organization
- They don't have an excess 100 to toss around
- Can't do much about it now
- Just wanted to express what they asked me to express
- Do with it what they will
- Most likely will pursue this until they get an answer

Aashna Chudgar (6:45PM)
- Not too much to say
- Heard about decision last night to move Sherkin and Sunderrajan as chairs of advocacy
- Wanted to voice my support for them, they've been really helpful and considerate of all the progress that I wanted to pursue as part of the committee, they've been great for the functionality
- Would find it impractical to move leadership of the committee

Harter
- How are you affiliated?

Chudgar
- Diversity and equity manager

Malhis
- Can you expand on how you perceive Sohan and Sherkin?

Chudgar
- Extremely supportive of individual projects, very personable, good at fostering community, helps if people are stuck, I'm comfortable asking them for support, helps me be confidence and pursue my projects and ideas

Motion to unanimously consent to move into Item I3 Unit Reports.
Passed via unanimous consent at 6:48PM.

Sohum Kalia and Anand Giduthuri(8:50PM)

Motion to extend the speakers' time by 7 minutes.
Sussman - Chaudhry
Call to question - Wahidullah
This motion passed at 8:51PM.

Anand
- Graduate class of 2024
- Past year and a half been software lead building for AS

Kalia

- Served terms on senate and have been IVP, not fun job
- We’ve been working on project for a while with Michael and Noah and wanted to give update on what we’ve been doing, how it’s going and what we’ve been doing
- Crazy to see how little the association changes, we’ve had them 3 years in a row
- The reason for some of these problems is there is no ground truth established
- You guys are talking about different facts, you don't have that transparency
- That is what we see as an issue with entire association
- Not just legal code
- What we came to talk about is finances and minutes
- Raise your hand if you’ve been part of a requisition
- Lower your hand if you’ve ever had that requisition solved without problem
- Only 1 or 2
- The issue there is the same issue as legal code
- There isn't a ground truth established across association with these facts
- BCUs make a minutes, to be approved folder
- That requisition is made to the financial operations team where they submit their physical receipts
- Then they have to go back into their minutes and control F their minutes
- Every step of that process, there is some sort of prone to error moment
- Think it’s a dumb, bad system
- Problem that’s been happening for years and years
- Talking with michael and noah on different issue, as we were working through that, we realized we can’t solve any more issues without establishing that ground truth
- Michael, don’t wanna speak for you
- Can you tell us about needs on your end?

Michael

- I’ve supported this project
- Gratifying to see you back with such energy
- Tuned in to some of his development project work
- Recommended that it's not just the financial fund management and return of investment and dividend proceeds
- Beyond 5% that were talking about now
- Which is one of the elements of the development project
- Which is a fund management, cash utilization of reserves, optimization in a very balanced portfolio manner, adhering to investment advisory committee standards of an investment policy statement, which is in work for a new Fidelity Investment push to get more more out of our reserves, that's one thing we need to do
- Sohum’s got a great handle on that
- Our loss of return on investment because of our lack of attention to our federally managed reserves

- We’re doing better
- Got 500+ thousand
- Goal is increasing, want to go further
- What came out of that discussion was the fundamental basis for all financial decision making and how that is captured in our association
- Currently it is an ad hoc approach to recording and detailing the allocations for BCUs finance committee in a manner which we have to parse through
- Takes a lot of time
- Got that as a key goal to optimize in some manner, easier to manage across the board
- Layers of security
- Can have all that and more
- Idea is that we could extract info weekly
- Have money in right account within rapid period
- Then we can approve requisitions
- All of that takes a lot more time, it’s a bigger project
- Not just financial accounting and workload process
- It’s a core decision making process, with that comes committee membership
- Turnover basis that feeds into this
- There are other members of community including davidson working on AI
- Part of that world, I’m very supportive

Kalia
- The systems in place have been designed years and years ago
- Almost all of you ran on transparency
- Not possible to run on transparency when individuals in organization can’t say what ground truth is
- Were putting a digitized system in place that would solve these issues
- Just a demo click, check it out, just one little piece
- I saw that there’s an honoraria system bill on the agenda. So I'm sure this is still a work in progress
- This wasn't supposed to be topical, but then it's three years ago, we had a similar argument over plans

Harter
- Everyone would have a better understanding if we do this after recess

Back from recess at 9:24PM

Motion to extend the speakers time by up to ten minutes
Harter-Ono
Called to question- Chaudhry
This motion passed at 9:24PM
Sohum Kalia

- Yeah, awesome. Okay, we were just, or I was just ranting about my problems within minutes, I think. But the point of that was, the minutes is just one system, and the minutes impact almost every other system to the association, just like every other system, and our example of that are these other two systems that we were taking a look at. Look Great, the Honoraria system, appointment system. Now, three years ago, we had a similar issue with appointments where there wasn't a very clear shared command. Someone discovered legal code that is out of legal code. Chairs of BC use specific committees needed to be appointed by the President, and they needed this specific document. There was a whole mess, and all of that was already in legal code, but it wasn't followed, because everyone was following what the Senate for them did, and the Senate for them just hadn't read that specific part of the legal pen because, you know, it's 500 pages. And the reason I bring that up is, does anyone know who the chair of take back home is? 2 people? Yeah. Well, it's just like, Do you know the exact budget of their food for the last three weeks right now? Did you get to me? Like, right now?
- It's not a claim, I make it clear. But the point is, you don't know off the top of your head, and you don't currently have a way to just find out, like, Dude, you would have to look, go through every single one of the minutes, hit Control F, and find, like, a food budget and add it up manually. That's absurd, even if, like, a student was able to do that right now, they can't do that. That is not transparency, is what I'm trying to say which kind of leads

- So it's clear that, as has some operational inefficiencies that can be addressed in some of its essential pipelines, what we aim to do is mitigate risk and bring back working hours from some of the two stakeholders in its discussion, which includes BCU members, members of the Finance Committees, senators, among others. Michael Smith,
- Another point that I'd like to discuss is that the information mentioned to even come to these insights, it's strewn across federal different sources, through our Google Drive, documents and shared internal emails contain information that should be public depending on circumstances, but that information just isn't accessible, sometimes to senders, sometimes to all of the Time, to general student body. One thing that we want to do to address this is centralizing all the data as it is managed, including the minutes, so we can track approval status transactions and making sure that all of that is transparent and clear and visible and accessible to everyone whose money suspects. And the nice thing about having Senate constitution and the legal code and standing rules is that these processes can be codified, which means that these processes can be digitized, which means that we can empower the students to take control, to make more informed decisions and have more reliable procedures and operations in this great 21st Century.

Sohum

- So okay, jumping in, I'm sure something is already open at the minutes platform. I want to, like, connect some of the words we're saying to like, actual things we can look at. So when we first brought this to know, like he wanted to see the not gonna speak for you again, but the whole, like, financial transparency section, with just your ability to click on a bcu we can see what their budget is, see what the money has been being spent on you and any any student anywhere. So currently, obviously it's not hooked up to anything. This is just a demo, but we'd have to, like, hook it up through the back end. But if you click on a BCU, you should be able to get some financial insights that otherwise would take, you know, minutes

- I know all of my words are just kind of like a jumble of fun buzzwords and like ideas, but there is a central core vision here. My point is overarching as works in a million different ways all at once, with everyone doing their own thing and assuming everyone else is on the same page as them.
- If there was a way that you could put all of your appointments all through one portal, it would work. It would do whatever the legal code says it does. And then everyone can see, auditably, the entire transaction . who saw the appointment, who approved it, where they were, when they were there, all of that. Then you would have an actual org chart, you would have that ground truth of who is in the association at what time. If you have that ground truth, you can then build on it. You can say, Oh, these people in this BCU submitted these minutes, or these people were in this BCU and the chair said these things about them in our Honoraria retrieval process. It's the ability to just build, well, it's the foundation needed to actually know what is happening in the association before you can even make a decision on what you should be doing.

Sussman
- This has been a consistent topic of legislation this year, modernizing one of them moving on tonight. So my question is, in current legal code, there exists an act called the minutes Transparency Act, which is essentially to have the bcus bullet point their finances, which we all know doesn't work because it's just not in place. My question is, do you think it's going to be inevitably struck in a bill to clean up the legal code?
- Should that be expanded upon, or is there another way to do that where the Senate is made aware of these finances that are happening within these areas on a weekly basis?
- We can understand what's being spent on food or what's being spent on events, etc

Sohum
- Yes, yes. I'll answer your very last question, and then reference the context. So one of the things no one actually specifically asked for was a like, the reportability of like. Every week you log in the portal, it will give you a sheet that says exactly what transactions happened all across the association. Every week you can see exactly what types of transactions. Was it all food? Is it like 30% food? Was it speaker fees, who knows?
- Obviously it changes every week, but it would all be there. And then you can, you know, base the rest of your decisions off of that. So yes, and then on the minutes, then the minutes. That act failed. Obviously, it didn't work very well. I think the reason it didn't work wasn't because, like in spirit, it's a standardization goal, right? Without actually adding standardization, it was supposed to be a compromise between BCUs who wanted to do their own thing on Minutes. Obviously, minutes are all not very standardized, and just having one single template for all bcus minutes, and what it ended up being is just another thing for BCU to do that is just not going to get our assoc on. So what we kind of see this is as an opportunity to for the Senate to standardize processes that they want to be codified going for because obviously you put something on the legal but it doesn't always happen, but this could be your opportunity to make sure this is how things aren't done

- Would you be available to write such legislation so it can be codified by the end of this term?

Sohum

- Yeah I'd love too

Luken

- I know we've been discussing this for a while. I hope everyone has pulled up the website that they shared with us and started to click through it, you can literally find any information you need of all the stuff we always complain about in this in this mo that they have set up. So I think it's super cool. I just want to make everyone aware of that. My question to you guys is, to you guys is, what are you looking for from us tonight? If anything?

Sohum

- I sent an email to Enri with a proposition
- exploratory period to actually spec out every single system, every single process, which obviously I wanted to just go do it, but that's fair. That's very responsible if you guys want to do that. So this the spec sheet is for the the initial discovery period, and the minutes, for the minutes portal is done. It just needs to be implemented across all 50 something BCU, which obviously takes a lot, is that

Luken

- I forwarded that email to you guys by the way

Sohum

- A couple of yall came up to me saying you wanted to help work on the project, i would appreciate getting the input if possible

E) Acceptance of Agenda

Motion to accept the agenda as amended
Harter- Ono
Called to question- Ly
Passed at 11:09PM

F) Consent Calendar

G) Action Items

A Bill to Modernize Honoraria referred out of the Finance Committee with amendments

Jiang

- The intention of the amendments was to add senate deduction on the amount based on excused and unexcused absences. There is also an extension under section 6 on the Spearman fellows for their amount. I think that's all of it.

Sussman

- The amendments to this bill are purely procedural. The senate deductions are new but very much needed as attendance is horrendous. Especially at the State of Association which was a new event, but no one attended. This bill needs to pass as soon as possible so that the new honoraria system can be in check before winter quarter. Melani and I have been working on this since summer with staff like Holly, Micheal, Sean, Marissa and financial operations. This has gone through several checks, it just added the senate deductions.

Ly

- Can a senator be retroactively excused for absence or no?

Sussman

- That's an Attorney General question

Ly

- An unexcused is a 15% deduction for honoraria, so can an absence be retroactively excused?

Iden

- I don't see a reason why not. I know you're going to be bad at me, I didn't realize that this is an amendment, and not a bill, it should be tabled as well.

Lala

- Why is that the case?

Iden

- If you look at our Constitution, it says any amendments or bylaws must be tabled for one week. Amendments should be tabled

Sussman

- Amendments were in finance committee that took place this past week, the original amendments were brought up 2 weeks ago.

Iden

- You're opening yourself up to legal council. This can be contested if you go ahead and pass it.

Sussman
- The bill was tabled for 2 weeks

Iden
- Tabled is like it came to the senate floor, remains unamended, and it comes back to the Senate floor next week. This is why there is a slight issue of your tabling to committees, because if things get amended, it may come out and change the bill. That isn't generally what we've been doing in the senate. I think your process is good work, but that is one of the things that needs to be hashed out. These things are getting amended, amended when they would have otherwise gotten tabled if they were amended in the Senate.

Sussman
- Hypothetically, let's say the Senate really likes this bill, and they decide to pass it, and there are issues with the Judicial Council. Can it be repassed?

Iden
- Sure but it just depends how the Judicial Council sees it. This is a substantial change to honoraria. It's there so people can consider it.

Sussman
- Would you recommend an email vote for this?

Iden
- Yes to get it passed before fall quarter ends

Jiang
- I got asked today by BCUs offers about honoraria because it gets sent out

Lala
- Yes, it's in the process. We can leave as is and email vote next week

Iden
- Yes

Motion rescinded- Wahidullah

Motion to adopt The Financial Policies & Procedures of the Associated Students
Jiang- Ly

Yes- 12
No- 0
Abstentions- 5
This motion passes at 10:13PM

Jiang
- so basically, the whole purpose of this is because now we're operating on the previous years, but it's just a procedure and title change basically like, we just need to update the author's names and the shared names and the previous and they're going to be a grammatical and consistency change,

- One big section change will be flex cards. But that's not like a fundamental change for students, our RCOs for BCU is mostly a change in the staff purchase. So it's basically regular or not regulating, but like, just make the pre approval of mandatory part for credit card use for. We just need to update officers names and preface

- Just to clarify
- This whole policy is normally passed in the finance committee?

Jiang
- The process is get it passed and the ratification in senate
- I forgot to put it in email vote because we don't meet week 10, that's on me
- But we can just do senate

Ly
- Is your committee aware of the changes

Jiang
- Yeah it was out on the agenda two weeks
- I was informed by advisors that they would rather have procedure change as soon as possible

Motion to approve 10k for UCSB Reads from finance committee fund winter 2026
Jiang- Manakova

Jiang
- If you remember, we struck out twice in the senate for the program because we were in this negotiation with the library with study hours. It is kind of resolved. The project manager of UCSB Reads emailed us and asked us to reconsider their request. The event itself has continued for 5-7 years. It is a huge event. They give free books to students and invite authors to do a free seminar to students. It is a good event. Since the negotiation is out of the way, it is reasonable to approve them for the amount they want.

Manakova
- Did they already go through the process without our funding?

Jiang
- They asked 50k to begin with and they want to secure at least 20k to book the author. They then went on to book the author without our fund. They would still appreciate it if we would help them with the distribution of free books. This year they are trying to make it a more large-scale event.

Lala
- I was on the email thread as well. It was essentially the range of the program that would depend on how many students are there. If I remember correctly, last year UCSB Reads, they requested 5k, this year it was 50k. 10k is more in the range of what has been precedent.

Hepburn

- Why are we giving double the amount of money funding as we did last year? With that mentality, we can just keep doubling it each year. We should not be spending money on non-associated students related things because it makes the university think they can keep getting money out of us. Why are we just like oh 10k, sure? The library hasn't fulfilled many things they promised.

Luken

- I concur with Senator Hepburn. I want to ask if they gave or provided to the finance committee with an itemized breakdown of what this will be spent on. I have not seen that and I would like to.

Jiang

- It's in the fluxx. The reason the funding was doubled, is because the scale of the event is doubled. My memory is not coming, but they have a huge author and the whole process of selecting authors is democratic. They send out surveys to students to vote on their favorite author. They're doubling the scale of the event to 200-400. The details I can send in fully but that is why they doubled funding

Manakova

- The author is a famous singer called Japanese Breakfast so that's why it's more expensive. Just talking to other students, many students are interested in this. Even though we don't like the library right now, maybe we could fund this so students can meet these artists.

Luken

- Thank you for the explanation and I think that this is a worthwhile thing for the student body to have access too. On principle, given that the library has not fulfilled their responsibilities and has not been easy to cooperate with. I think we should be difficult to cooperate with, and I will be voting no and I would encourage everyone else to.

Claro

- Question, hypothetically and the bottom line, will students know that Associated Students funded this event?

Jiang

- Yeah it's mandatory for them to put the logo, well they promised.

Lala

- It's in financial policy and procedures. This is historically one of the events that has had it be present more than others. If you look at the UCSB President page, Yang and the ASUCSB president will pose with whatever book it is.

Hepburn

- I agree with Luken that this sounds like a great event, but the library should pay for it. I don't think we should pay double the amount we did last year. In my opinion, that's saying oh here's extra money. Also, the library first said they needed 50k, and then they said they absolutely needed 20k to book the author, and now they got it without our help. They're just saying what needs to be said to get money. They got their author and we didn't give any money so far. Why shove 10k at them? I would be understanding if another motion was made to be 5k, but even then the library has been so bad to cooperate with.

Chaudhry

- This event is open and free for everyone. I know there are a lot of thoughts about the hours being cut, but keep in mind that this is a department that is separate from the library so not everyone is under their control. This event is open and free to everyone. Looking at their finance committee request, it's only for books to be given out to students. They are not asking for money for the author, just books to give out to students.

Luken

- Should we be in closed session?

Lala

- We should've been a long time ago

Sussman

- In terms of negotiating with the library, we're trying to meet on neutral grounds and by striking money that would go to the student body, that is not the most prestigious look as an association. I understand the sentiment of voting no, but I think for us to mutually connect and to come to an agreement of restoring late night study, we have to give a little as well.

Lala

- Have they indicated to you that the funding would be directly for the amount of books provided? Is it either 150 or 3/400 depending on the sum given?

Jiang

- I just checked the details they submitted and I think I might be mistaken in the amount. Their plan is getting 2000 copies for 30k. They are not getting that so they will have a ⅓ of that. I also just want to have a quick note. I totally concur with the sentiments about the library turning back on us when they made a promise. I also want to remind everyone, we are supposed to fund events that students are willing to attend. If there is popular support, and democratic influence on this, I think we just are supposed to agree because they are the people who provided us the money. It doesn't matter how we feel, if it's a good event, we do have to sacrifice some of our own emotions for the sake of what the student body wants

Harter- Hepburn
Called to question- Sherkin

Objection- Hepburn
- I think this should come out of finance committee fall 24 instead of unallocated

Call to question rescinded- Sherkin

Jiang
- The reason why the finance committee did what they did is just a quick comment, I'm not against the motion. They requested $280 for 8XLs pizzas and when they estimated attendance with 23. They said 23 so we just said that it feels like a lot, but if they showed up with more people than that's different. We are not unreasonably deducting things

Harter
- A bunch of people came, it was 40-50 people

Hepburn
- The minutes of the finance committee, Senator Jiang said 30-40 people. That's an average of 7.5 or 10 for senators information

Jiang
- Sorry I remembered wrong. That's still an excess.

Hepburn
- If it's 30 people that's $10 a person.

Jiang
- If you read the deliberation part that I was talking about, that decision was made by officers. It wasn't something I intentionally did.

A Bill to Clean Up Legal Code referred out of the Liaison Committee with amendments

Wahidullah (7:19PM)

- Can make it brief
- We're in extensive communication with this as best as we can
- I've explained the original timeline, supposed to be first week of winter
- Speeding up internal processes
- Explains expectations, meetings, making sure committee members are on their tasks
- We've communicated deadlines clearly, emergency editing just in case to ensure it's overseen properly and holistically
- Because of the situation of how extended this legislative piece was, it was in our capacity to try the best that we can, though it's understandable that it could have been complicated, just for some of our committee members may have difficulty understanding legislative pieces
- Overviewing this the best we can
- Discharged it last tuesday as to not violate code timelines
- Making sure it's all read through
- Communicating to them if they have any questions
- Have to discharge it this quarter
- Maximize the time we have
- The alternative would've been violating our duty
- Tried our best with the limited time we have as well

Than

- Thank you Wahidullah for taking charge
- She took initiative to make sure this was passed
- Hopefully these amendments reflect the changes
- Feel free to ask us questions

Sussman

- Introduced this bill week 2

- In committee for 8 weeks
- Really thank liaison committee to receive 500 pages of legal code
- This is what I ran on, my campaign
- To clean up our association
- Hope you guys vote yes

Than
- I just want to make it clear that in our correspondence, we made it clear that this is in a political bill, there's not supposed to be anything contentious
- I was thinking of suggestions like should we add this?
- And he's like no it's political
- Just want to reiterate, while we looked over it, understand there may be concerns that the eradication of certain things, want to emphasize we did look at it
- Want to say, yes majority of it was spacing and dots

Wahidullah
- If anyone has just any confusion about looking at the legislative piece itself, we also attached to the following amendment stage to have their safety transparency, to communicate more in better detail what we changed and what was the definition we communicated to that the bill definitely recovered because it is 500 pages long

Luken proxy
- Table this until the first week of winter to give everyone a chance to review over break
- Functional difference

Ly
- From what I remember being on liaison committee
- Want to be transparent, not all changes were made directly to document as Wahidullah said for sake of time
- If that is an issue for any senators, want to bring it to mind
- Most of it should be reflected on the amendment
- There are still comments that should be resolved
- The edits haven’t been made on the document
- Want everyone to keep that in mind

Lala
- Are these motions to change legislation recorded somewhere?

Ly
- Comments made on side of bill to clean legal code, all of that was on document that says amendment changes
- But on actual bill itself when opened, only half of those amendments were opened

- Half are still left as comments on the side
- Hasn't been implemented

Lala
- For AG, didn't think I was asked this for a change
- For a piece of legislation to be considered passed, it has to be reflected on the doctrine of that legislation
- Is that correct?

AG Iden
- It should be, not necessarily, like if there was a motion made for something to be made wasn't reflected.
- There was still a consent for that change to be made, just to reflect this necessarily means it's there
- Should be formatted in its final version

Lala
- Still unclear on where these were recorded

Than
- Think Ly meant we didn't get to all the recommended changes
- Those weren't changed
- The amendments we did change weren't on the document
- There were a couple of changes that people made that we didn't get to
- Some of them requested to ask staff member about this
- And we couldn't do that

Lala
- Ly, does that reflect your understanding?
- There were things on there that were not reflected as changes with legislation

Ly
- Yes, there are comments like that, but there are actual changes like adding the word ‘the’
- Would have to be added

Lala
- Miniscule, but it would have to follow the format of other legislation

Pascher
- Best case scenario, reflected on document as purple
- If we were to vote on this tonight, we’d be expecting changes not on the document
- If I had discrepancy with changes on document, I would not be able to contest that specific one

- Personally as a co author, I'd need more time to review changes that liaison has discharged
- Share some sentiment that this should be referred or whichever Sussman feels is right
- Looked through original bill, but the changes I haven't been able to follow up on entirely

Wahidullah
- I can holistically tie into the comments mentioned
- On the beneficial point in particular, that's why I was communicating about as we're doing our weekly originally, our plan was to assign sections to each committee member to overview their holistic section in the building pages
- After communicating continuously with them as well on a weekly basis, at the end of the day, it's up to the committee members who do their jobs and understanding the knowledge of the voice of doing this legislation
- Some of them are fully understanding as well as completing it on the time
- This is why I was suggesting that you can look at the student member page and all your comments right there
- We're just adding the test code and stuff, just recommending, if you guys would prefer to either refer to that as one another committee
- Going to finish that to the best of our abilities

Sussman
- If you guys want to table it, feel free
- As senators, it's our duty to review the agenda before it goes out
- If you want to refer it, fine, if you want to pass it, great
- If you want to table to another committee, I'd recommend outreach just for review
- With the expectation that you guys review it by winter, which is a month
- This has been in works for 8 weeks
- I've gone to every liaison committee meeting
- At some point, we need a new legal code
- If not today, make it next quarter

Lala
- Seems option is either vote on it now
- Or realistically refer it to next meeting
- Essentially vow to each other that you have read it by next quarter
- Changes and motions will be made, execute it next quarter

Hepburn
- Does anyone disagree with Luken's notion that there's no functional difference?

Pascher
- Sentiment I thought was that it should be tabled to week 1

- Could be misinterpreting

Ly
- I think if we delay it a week it's fine
- Think my recommendation would be to table it to committee
- Because if they're having the standard that all bills that go in committee be reflected on the bill itself, formatting errors are not
- Been in meetings where a bill has been on our agenda multiple times because of an error
- No issue with the bill itself
- Just the fact that the changes should be directly reflected
- Think I can see comments because I have editing access, but not if you're a viewer
- Imperative that any changes should be reflected
- Only way that can be done is if bill is opened up again

Motion to refer A Bill to Clean Up Legal Code to the outreach committee with the expectation it will be released week 1 of winter quarter.
Sussman - Claro
Hepburn
- Why not just table it to week 1?
- Don't think there's issue with current amendments
- Am I misunderstanding?

Pascher
- I personally would like to reread this bill and not take bullet points at face value
- Just for due diligence, would like to reread motions
- One thing to summarize in a bullet point, another to read things in legal code
- All up for interpretation at end of the day, way that it's written is important

Wahidullah
- Point of context for people that are communicating and also knowing about why to invest in the committee itself?
- More of an extensive time with the eight weeks to discharge the filtering of legal code
- One fact, as I mentioned various weeks ago, is that the initial plan about this was discharged originally in the week one which it sorted because we wanted that time to go over property
- And so we put the publication and the changes as efficiently as possible, everyone have the time to look into this, plus, because we had the children's session, things that they had to go over in our committee, as well as the fact that, as a host making sure that everything was manipulated properly
- Since it was a few weeks to week 8, was expected time with the reporters and stuff, as well as an official plan to section

- We had to speed it up three times more because of the precinct of making two inches in our assessment of them and then they try to have to obey the charge
- In our capacity, this is the best also that we try to do it. Just wanted to also add additional concepts

Harter
- Outreach committee is fully capable of taking care of this during week 1
- Only request is that people take care of it during winter break and come to our meeting week 1 to get it done effectively
- Would really look silly if we got it done and you guys came to senate meeting without having spoken to us
- You guys walk the talk

Pascher
- Would like for everyone to be aware that there are no pressures for a bill to be discharged out of committee
- There's criteria where it gets discharged out of floor after 3 weeks
- Little skeptical about what that means, who was pressuring you to force it out of committee
- If you feel it should've stayed longer, you should've kept it longer
- If someone wanted to make a bill to discharge, you should've voted on it
- Not sure why you're speaking in context of someone telling you to get this out

Jones
- It's hard to write bills for BCUs who need legal code changes and make changes to a current legal code when it's going to be changed again
- There will be discrepancies between those bills
- It cannot be introduced until hopefully this has passed

A Bill to Add the Healthcare Initiatives Coordinator to the External Vice President's ...

referred out of the Advocacy Committee with amendments

Sherkin

- This was referred out of our committee. We did the proposed amendments. In subclause 2, there were additions to periods at end of sentence. That would need to be addressed in session today and I apologize. It's 3 small grammatical adjustments.

Luken

- If anyone knows if the bill is urgent, we can deal with it today, if not we can table it to committee

Sussman

- Its per EVPLA request or they wont get honoraria for the quarter

Lala

- Briefly state problem again

Sherkin

- In subclause 2, there are 3 periods we need to add and then its good to go

Iden

- If it's amended, it has to be tabled again

Luken

Sherkin

- I agree with Senator Luken. I was just being transparent

Fall Quarterly Omnibus Bill referred out of the Advocacy Committee with amendments

Luken

- Do we need to add the appointment of the health care coordinator in evpla office

Lala

- That would be wise. If the chair wants to speak

Sherkin

- Senator Wahidullah was very diligent in providing the necessary updates that were needed
- We made them and discharged it back to senate

Wahiduallah

- I want to reiterate from the last meetings we have ourselves regarding towards certain work that we try to communicate to them, as well as for my own personal end, to also come to advocacy meeting and stuff we can communicate about second history, particularly to talk about the regarding meetings but they not attend or do not communicate properly for these in particular, and obviously becomes that the committee cannot rewrite other entities with their phone.
- We won't expand any communication. It was not really there. Was not present there. So I think this is why people are like, these are made. I do want to have some questions regarding towards ag stuff, because there is other research today from staff members. And I wanted to hear it because I value the interpretation based on this could cause highlighting towards this. I'm not sure. Though I know that this is very dependent on being passed to this. I just want to know on if you can answer on some particular question that if a certain particular BCU is struck through from our representative piece, does that originate to this original over the code particular is that strike it through in general, of the BCU on omnibus bill, could both appeal to the vote if you have any interpretation of that.

Lala

- Okay, so there were updates for a specific BCU that the strike to respond in purple, which essentially means we're adding something on in committee. And what they meant by the strike to do is we're not considering this. It doesn't need to strike the BCU. From my understanding, it doesn't seem to be anything but a problem, right?

Than

- I wish this would pass. The only problem is it there therefore be it enacted, clause before the so they were confused on it says, Therefore being enacted. And that clause hasn't been struck through, but the rest of the legal update is struck through. So the possible interpretation is that therefore being enacted, that your entire legal code, therefore being enacted, was struck through

AG

- If it passes but something is struck through it is gone

Than

- No, I'm sorry, so I think that's the answer. So the problem is, we would have to open the bill straight strike through that enacted clause. But then, as the Attorney General said, it would have to be tabled. But that because, as it currently stands, this means that their legal code would be struck through because the enacted clause is still in there. But if that's not, if that's

Luken

- Is this also meant to be passed today?

Wahidullah

- Because it's going to BCUs and their legal code

Lala

- There are multiple positions in the as food bank who would lose their honoraria if there were not passed

Iden

- Best solution is to resolve clauses
- You can pass it, resolve it,
- You can do that tonight, or table it to next week
- Or do it in an email vote
- This can be tabled to next week or do it in an email vote

Than

- Could we table it and do the changes
- If there are any concerns, their honoraria, procedural on the senate end, take it up with JC

Lala

- How did this originate

Wahidullah

- Well, I mean, just simply that I already just explained that BCU did not. They're just coming to give interpretation about it, because they're not there to add in the fishermen.

Lala

- There are severals peoples hanging on the line
- I would prefer passing this and clarifying it in the future motion

Wah

- If we are concerned with the BCU and their involvement, I don’t want to do email vote

Sussman
- AG would it be proper to table this bill to a committee to fix these issues
- And then have an email vote next week

Iden
- If you are going to change the substance of the bill, it should be tabled for one week

Luken
- I don’t know how they're gonna meet at all given the dead week

Lala
- I think I can explain its too motions, motion to accept the agenda and motion to adjourn and something that took consensus in the senate

Wahihullah
- Even if we do that then there's still questions about this particular amendment itself
- The things that they are requesting, there are concerns about that in itself

Iden
- Has honoraria been opened?
- Why are we worried about honoraria?

Lala
- Because they won't have been appointed by fall quarter

Iden
- These are for retroactive positions that are now being amended for week 10?
- I would just go the resolution route, it would take 2 mins to write
- Bill needs to be tabled for a week
- You'd have to get approval from vice chancellor

Ono
- Could that vote be done through email

Lala
- Are we more or less okay with that

Luken
- Procedural question, just because you amend a bill slightly, does it have to be tabled for a week
- You can amend the motion as long as it doesn’t change the overall content, so it makes sense that we wouldn't need to table that if it doesn't change content

Iden
- This differs from senate to senate
- Generally in my senate, any amendments being made, If its changing the substance of the bill then it needs to be tabled
- If you’re changing grammar, that’s fine
- Where the line is drawn of substance vs. amendments is up to you

Lala
- You could probably argue that its a misunderstanding
- Are you okay with the email route? You can just pick a committee and whoever is willing to pick this up can

- Was is the resolution

Iden
- You just write a resolution with the same substance of the bill, and you could pass it tonight

Lala
- But then we would have to pass a bill to instate this long term

Motion to refer the fall quarter omnibus bill to liaison committee
Sussman-Ly
Call to question: Claro
This motion passes at 9:53PM

Lala
- There will be no additional amendments from legal committee

Wahidullah
- If we do that, then do we have to do an emergency meeting and ask the associate vice chancellor

Lala
- I will ask for the permission to do the email vote
- You just discharge and vote

Wahdiullah
- Wouldn't it have to be approval for liaison to meet

Lala
- You're right it does have to be an in person meeting

Wahidullah
- We have conflicts about the amendment

Lala
- What are the conflicts

Wahidullah
- That they are adding new positions to the BCU

Lala
- We just need to get rid of the strikethrough

HIP Proposal - Souper Kitchen referred out of the Advocacy Committee without amendments

Sherkin
- This came to our committee, there was a lot of intermediary work in terms of assessing this. I would recommend this gets tabled to the outreach committee, seeing as Vice Chair Harter is the point person. I am also listed as a project coordinator so I will go to those meetings. We also need to meet with the director again to make sure this is all successful and we can deliver student impact. We spent a lot of time in session and it was a holistic committee decision, not just my decision.

Ly
- I'm assuming the dates and phases will be changed

Sherkin
- Yes

- Purpose of those, if you're part of any purchasing system or get honoraria, please fill that out so we can reimburse you and track who we pay so we can report to the IRS
- One form asked for your social and one doesn't
- Don't need to sign both, please don't, 99% the same data
- We don't need to
- Staff are also signing a similar form
- As we're wrapping up new financial system, need everyone in there so they can get paid

Lala

Sean
- I'll be around

Than
- First thing, is there clarification regarding students who don't have a social security number, what do they do about their honoraria?

- There's questions on there, it says international students and those students, they don't have social security number, then it's thought to walk and talk to Senate

- Was curious about the employee satisfaction retention committee, survey went out
- Are students allowed to see it? Is it confidential?

Sean
- Think I can give a one on one overview, generally speaking it's confidential, but can survey what was taken in 2024, can give overview without distributing

- Request that all staff job descriptions from staffing working days, would that be doable?

The Financial Policies & Procedures of the Associated Students

Jiang (7:10PM)

- My fault, didn't put it in finance committee, supposed to be included in internal committee matter
- Do you need me to brief about what changes are made?
- Biggest changes are a quarterly cap with intention of more equitable distribution of funding
- Past years, RCOs have unproportionate large amount of funding
- Intention of cabinet is to mitigate that situation
- New section on flex card drafted by Malhis
- Just minor changes, changing names of SEAL fund to finance committee fund

- Didn't recognize it was actually AS funding SEAL orgs
- Extra cap added to different accounts of funding per organization
- Inconsistent with all the other existing capital fund for other funding accounts like STARK, conference, academic competition, sports teams
- Biggest changes are mostly those

Michael
- Those are most of the changes in addition to the credit card section
- Reflects concern of financial office to have coded elements of financial policies
- Pretty much where we are

Hepburn
- What is the quarterly cap?

Jiang
- Existing cap was 10% of annual funding, around 60k per org
- Based on record, we received orgs like gaucho racing that get 100k per year
- We are initiating the cap to add this extra limitation for them to justify the extra extensive amount of funding

Malhis
- To answer your question, let's assume the amount of money we have in discretion from finance committee is 200k, for fall quarter
- Winter we have more or less, spring we have a lot more
- If that amount is 200k, the cap is 20k
- If spring's amount is 450k, the cap is 45k
- It's just 10 percent

Lala
- You intend on voting on this tonight

Jiang
- Yes

Hepburn
- Don't see redlined version
- I see the copied financial policies and procedures, but I can't tell
- A lot of bills and resolutions they have, 'here's what we're changing'. Is there a version of that?

Lala
- There's a version of financial policy from last year
- You'd be able to compare

Jiang

- Reason why it’s not formatted like a resolution or bill, because it’s not either
- It’s financial policy and procedure

Hepburn
- Ultimately, senate has to make the decision
- Bit much to expect everyone here to know last year’s financial policy and then this new one
- Can you make a red letter version?
- I don’t have time to review last year’s

LinkedIn Learning

Michael Cea (7:00PM)
- Thank you for entertaining this project
- Idea was that it was proposed through president itself that linked in learning would be made available as trial to student body as whole
- Agreement was made with linked in learning HQ in Carpinteria for 6 months, at cost of 30k to association, made last winter
- Wasn't activated as a trail for various reasons, one was technical aspect of set up with SSO, sign up with IDs
- In addition with some formatting activity, got stuck in summer period
- We had to delay the full cost to that 6 month trial
- Got wind of this during summer to try and resurrect some form of residual benefit to the association through legal counsel
- Sean’s involvement as well to try and negotiate an extension
- Extension period was agreed as an additional sum
- Was never agreed formally, that’s why were bringing it up
- The chair would like the committee to discuss and consider starting it winter quarter for the cost of three months for an additional $10,846 it would be open to the full campus
- One of the conditions I had after discussing, they’d be able to provide data
- Post evaluation phase
- Agreement for full access for education of student body as a whole
- That's the proposal
- $10,486
- We've already spent 28,000 to get nothing, an additional 10,800 to get something that can then be considered in the spring for evaluation.

- They wish to set up a steering committee that will ensure the successful completion of the trial this time, and get technical involved early on.
- Free period of set up during winter quarter starting
- First weeks through early april
- Historically, I think we've lost, but we can gain in accordance to this trial

Wahidullah
- I'm looking at discussion items, I don't think the photo links are working about the financial policies

Sean
- Trial didn't work well
- We didn't get a single sign on individual, for months and months, so back and forth
- If people think it's worth the value, it's up to all of you

Harter
- Have we already attempted to negotiate and not spend?
- How far down the process of pursuing this are we?
- Have we done a cost risk benefit analysis of this?

Michael
- Good question, struck me as being extortion
- Either pay up again or higher fee or nothing
- If you don't pay, we're gonna cut entire campus off
- Was return position of linked in learning
- Campus legal counsel got involved and tried to negotiate exclusive extension for free
- Not accepted, threatened to cut campus off, we capitulated and paid outstanding amount on the condition it'd be possible to run a trial which was supposed to be in fall but now winter
- We're gonna be charged 10k which is less than what they wanted to charge us

Sean
- The threat of cutting off campus was not a factor in our decision

Harter
- Let's just say that the senate's appetite is looking to pass the funding for it
- Are you looking for that to be passed today?

Michael
- If you guys agree to the 10k fee, it would be clear we can move forward with the data at the start of the trial, with some technical configurations starting immediately
- I'm in contact with LinkedIn and they're waiting for this decision

Lala

- Would you suggest any path forward? Any timeline?

Michael

- Don't think immediately starting upon return in January is right approach
- Prefer to delay it to give time to settle in
- Any consideration of holiday time for staff
- Perhaps third week of January, going into April or early May
- Setting up steering committee with student leadership members and staff
- From now until middle of January, my timeline recommendation

Harter

- I understand your calculation
- Wondering if we considered or if it's even possible if an extended timeline will afford us an ability to negotiate a better rate or anything of that nature
- Or even to do calculations of further legal escalation if it's possible
- Hard pill to swallow that we're basically being extorted

Michael

- Don't think it's good to just go backwards in time, and resurrect the acrimonious discussion and legal involvement
- Legal counsel of campus
- Don't propose to go further with legal methods

AG Iden

- Think you should move this into closed session

M) Appointments and Resignations

Sherkin

- Do we go down the list?

Lala

- Precedent has been bundle and approve

Sherkin

- Would like to discuss appointments under advocacy committee, specifically chair and vice chair
- I have utmost respect for Manakova and Ono
- That being said, I was informed of this reappointment process 2 days ago of the reconsideration of my position and the vice chair's position
- I was frustrated
- I spoke to AG and I don't know if it's within my jurisdiction, but I would request AG speaks on this

- There was no communication about this to me
- Week 1 through 10
- About this reconsideration of positions
- I've had no knowledge that there was even interest in this position
- I hold this position as chair not to hold power, not for my resume, just to help the student body
- Don't mean to be a cog in the machine
- Step aside for betterment of students
- I'll be the first one to step aside
- Bringing this up because there is a complete lack of communication to me and my vice chair
- I've heard conflicting information about this process and about the senators
- Am asking for support to strike this
- Need to have discussion with advocacy comm senators
- If that means different leadership needs to happen, so be it
- But I believe this was rushed, no communication to me
- Spent 2 days of week 10 dealing with this instead of focusing on my classes

Lala

- There are eight appointments online, there was a legislative change at the end of the 75th senate
- So the last term, which changed the structure from yearly appointments to committees to quarterly appointments, to committees with the idea being that you can have multiple senators who are interested in leadership positions and want to add new things to committees on there
- There was always a way for chairs to hold members accountable, mainly through honoraria
- But there was never anything in the opposite direction, of members holding chairs accountable
- It's not the only appointments on there
- Every committee leadership position is on here
- Last summer meeting, we appointed for fall
- That's done so if there's new chairs, they have time to adapt

Motion to strike the appointment of Senator Manakova and Senator Ono.
Malhis -

Lala

- Iden, when you and I were in the Senate last year, there was something similar of a singular or very small portion of appointments being whatever the past tense of strike is, and it lends it Judicial Council cases and a lot of trouble for the Senate

AG Iden

- I want to ask first, the change you're referring to, are you referring to the change in the standing rules for quarterly appointments, right?

Lala
- So there was a legislative change which got rid of them being yearly appointments, or term long appointments
- And there was a standing rules addition that made them appointments

AG Iden
- Under impression it's still concurrent with your term

Lala
- That was gotten rid of last meeting of senate

AG Iden
- You're asking if it's okay if they strike it?

Lala
- Considering the precedent, considering impartiality, what would you recommend?

AG Iden
- Referring to a specific chair's instance?

Lala
- Different one

AG Iden
- The body striking it isn't an overt action
- There's a basis that I have issue with this proceeding being made

Wahidullah
- As someone who was on 75th, this example is regarding towards procedure matters

Lala
- I'll accept motion

Hepburn seconds.

Lala
- Sherkin, you mentioned discussion
- Want to make it clear that vice president appoints leadership Senate committees and the senate approves those appointments
- There's no other procedure of a band or committee getting together and appointing

Hepburn
- Why are we changing chair and vice chair?
- Doesn't seem to be reasoning

Sherkin
- I didn't make the decision chair

Lala
- Would you be okay with me speaking to that?
- Idea of example, governments have cabinet reshuffles every 4 years, not necessarily someone's done a bad job, it's a means of reenergizing committees in neutral terms

- Second was as a means of accountability
- I was a member of a committee in my senate term, saw that there was no means of accountability for chair
- Wanted to make a much more democratic process
- The idea for these changes didn't originate with me
- I failed at certain times
- Communication wasn't good, had serious personal and academic issues which have taken forefront these past weeks
- Idea behind it came from doing my job throughout the quarter and speaking to committees
- The idea of change in leadership and advocacy committee came up over and over again
- There was a process in the selection, a conversation with one of the 2 names on appt list
- The latter had a more traditional process
- Was recommended by fellow senator, indicated interest
- Had interview, spoke to that interest
- Idea is that these positions can be applied de facto because they happen each quarter
- In the committee itself, there seems to be significant issues in organizing, making sure people were present and engaged, pushing the projects
- Through several conversations with senators on committee, came to this conclusion
- My error was not communicating this to chair and vice chair
- This push behind it is legitimate

Sherkin

- Don't want to take much more time
- Want to point out
- There was IVP presence at one meeting throughout 9 meetings to the quarter
- No members of staff came to meetings, everyone knows they're open to whole senate
- The whole senate, the whole association
- There was definitely a chance to come to me with chairship ideas
- Speaking of our projects, a lot of projects are big bureaucracy project like the Pardall tunnel
- We might not be able to produce quick results in 10 weeks
- But shifting everything mid way through the year is the best way to go about it through the students
- Don't hold onto this position with an iron grasp
- If this is best for students, I'm all for that
- But there wasn't a traditional process for the appointments, one was a conversation, one was an interview, these things need to be standard
- Again, truly I'm raising a red flag, but there's a complete lack of communication and lack of standard process that I'm learning from this experience

- This has not been the first instance of chairs changing this year
- This is a phenomenon that applies across the board
- What I was hinting at for cabinet shuffle, sometimes it's not failure of individual that's appointed
- Think chair and vice have done great job, especially in communicating with departments
- The primary push behind this is belief in senators Manakova and Ono in that they have something new to push to community

Sherkin

- Yes, that was my last point

AG Iden

- I'm having trouble finding what change you're referring to
- You're saying there was a change made to standing committee chair and vice chair
- Depending on whether or not that change is actually made will determine what else I'll say
- If you are a person who is being appointed to this position, you should not be taking a vote come time
- Since the senate is so interconnected, affecting your direct funding
- A lot of you guys are friends
- We address these conflicts, proceed with voting as impartial as possible

Lala

- The relevant section removed "the appointment of senators to standing committees shall be for the duration of the academic year. Any two senators may choose to switch seats on standing committees at the first meeting in the next quarter, within two thirds consent of the Senate."
- Process is solely governed by standing rules, which is how we've been doing it this entire rule

- Standing rules aren't. supposed to substitute the by laws
- It concerns meeting logistics
- Only thing remaining is IVP shall appoint chair and vice chair

Harter

- The sections of the legal code that would make this action illegal have been removed in previous senate
- However, supplementary literature, the standing rules, have provided a guideline
- My understanding is that the legal code is the supreme
- If the legal code doesn't have something contradicting standing rules, then ... serves as a supplement

AG Iden

- Standing rules are just for parliamentary prep
- It's not how we do an appointment, it's not a bylaw substitute
- Taking out a line of legal code, appointments are understood as year long
- If it's explicitly stated that chair and vice chair appointments expire at end of that quarter

- If it doesn't say that the chair and vice chairs are year long appointments
- All appointments are year long
- I also have issues with how this application process has been allegedly conducted
- Hasn't been communicated well to senators
- Shouldn't be a 'he said that one time' so we should do it

Lala

- What are you basing the entire term on when it was explicitly removed by the last legislative body?
- And the closest equivalent is that when federal law can't speak on something, state law speaks on the matter
- That's the idea that standing rules doesn't apply to anything, besides sort of trivialities or the details of the meeting is just plainly false
- Concerns several things about legislation
- The section that would make them term long was removed

Ly

- Because of contention, can we move these appointments to week 1 of winter?
- These shouldn't be happening week 10
- No standard procedure
- No reason why senate should be voting Manakova and Ono
- If IVP could list out a standard procedure and we could talk about it, feel like it would be best, instead of taking a while now
- There's clearly a lack of communication in standardized procedure
- The point of the bill you made as senator was to reevaluate chairs and bring in new energy every quarter
- Reason why Manakova and Ono are going for these positions is because they reached out for this

Lala

- Since roman empire, ignorance has never been an argument
- Not being aware of something
- Senator Manakova and Ono's appointment is wrong
- We can discuss week 1 of winter
- We can have a more thorough process
- Why I didn't make the application public, was to not destabilize that committee
- And say hey your vice and chair wont be around all year
- I think best route is to refer these to next quarter, then we can move on

Call to question - Harter
Objection - Wahidullah

- Think we should make a different motion in terms of procedure

Lala

- Moving into vote to vote

Malhis

- Given the bill that IVP Lala discussed he made as senator and Zha last year ot have a reshuffling of leadership
- He had a meeting with me and Jiang that the finance committee leadership was gonna shuffle every year and that me and Jiang would alternate chair position every quarter
- I'd have summer, Jiang would have fall quarter, I'd have winter, Jiang would have spring
- Our vice chair would be a non senator member
- However for this, this position still remains unchanged for this quarter despite this verbal agreement
- There was no communication to me
- I have access to chair accounts, financial ops data, budget cycle
- Been helping BCUs and RCOs on behalf of chair position
- Being cc'd on behalf of advisors
- Also been writing legislation
- As finance committee fake co chair
- There's been no communication with me on this process
- This is not because I simply just want to chair for my resume, I'm a chem major, I'm going to pharmacy school, this doesn't benefit me at all
- Somehow I'm still expected to help others without using this chair position next quarter
- Don't mean to discredit Jiang, want to fairly work alongside her on alternating the position next quarter
- Been no conversation that we made last year
- Feel like my time has been disrespected recently
- Frankly, I could just not do this at all
- If I was never meant to be chair, wish that should have been made to me before
- Also host 9 hours of office hours a week, triple the amount of others

Sussman

- Asking that personal matters be taken up over winter break

Lala

- I thought this matter would not make it to the floor because it involves more significant investigative matters that are outside of the scope or the control of the Senate in which, in the role of any decision maker, you have to take into account
- Much better suited towards a closed session discussion
- But there are serious reasons behind this, and no decision of its nature is made on personal grounds

Luken

- Apolgozie, I'm late
- Can we table these appointments to the next meetings

- This is the exact opposite of what senate just voted on five minutes prior

Pascher

- Reminder that you all are here to provide insight on how fellow US senators should vote
- We're here to vote
- Along those lines, we're being called in here in week 10
- Find it highly counterintuitive
- We should be taking care of business as usual
- Conversation and discussion should be along the lines of relevant rhetoric
- This stuff doesn't help

Jones - Chaudhry
Call to question - Harter
This motion passes at 8:23PM.

Motion to strike out chair and vice chair appointments from all Senate Standing Committees.
Ly -

Lala

- I can't accept that when the precedent is that these appointments are made before the next term begins

Pascher
- I'd like to appeal the decision of the chair on this motion
- You should've said you're not accepting

Lala
- Okay, I'll state my reasoning and you state yours
- Think about precedent, other ways of doing this, you can do a pinpointed version of this without the pending, long standing precedent that you appoint things for something that's about to begin before that thing begins. Usually, that's how it works

AG Iden
- Formatted appeals require a second
- Your opinion is last at the end
- Simple majority
- The new ad hoc appointment requires ⅔ of entire appointment

Luken seconds Pascher's appeal.

Pascher
- Think Ly's motion is valid
- Not clear to me what the legal code changes are/were
- Thank you for everyone responsible for keeping us up to date with that
- If it is the case and we're appointing on top, it's incorrect and procedurally wrong
- If one committee isn't having chairs appointed, it's not an issue with other ones too
- Don't think this is a hindrance to any committee plans

Jiang
- Know it's contradictory for me to do this
- There is business that needs to be conducted during winter break

AG Iden
- In our legal code, we go constitution, by laws, standing policies
- When something isn't clear, we refer to the higher document
- Standing rules in Senate is under Robert's Rules, only pertains to meeting procedures
- No impact on appointments
- Nothing has changed, you guys will remain in your positions
- If Erica were to lose her position by someone who was appointed, Erica would have grounds to take a JC case, because that's not legal

Lala
- If that were the case, liaison committee chair would be Ly, vice would be chair

AG Iden
- If they didn't resign, then there are grounds for JC

Wahidullah
- Specifically only resignation, though, we did rule things out for Senate regarding those particular appointments, different matters

Lala

- Let’s just vote

AG Iden

- If you vote yes, you appeal chair’s decision and motion is on the floor
- If you vote no, you agree with chair

Motion to amend the motion to read “Motion to strike out chair and vice chair appointments from all Senate Standing Committees with the understanding their positions are to be year-long appointments”.
Pascher - Than
Call to question - Luken
Objection - Manakova

- They’re saying AG Iden that there's a common understanding this is a year long positon
- Thought that Enri said he’d struck that out
- No where else in legal code that says that

Luken rescinds call to question.

Lala

- I will challenge this in the relevant space

AG Iden

- When a position is filled a position is filled
- Was pointed out to me, didn't pay much attention at the time
- You guys are going wrongly about this

Holly Dunn

- I’ll just second some of the comments made by AG
- Both in historical practice, because students have been appointed to positions
- There is language that says they’re year long appointments
- You get into tricky legal territory when you remove someone from a position without their consent
- Would encourage you all to consider it from their positon
- Wouldn't do that to a BCU member
- Don't have rolling membership
- By laws and standing policies are built around consensus and equal opportunity
- If you want to change, i’d discourage any action to reappoint somebody
- In most other areas, you’d need the process where someone resigns from positon

- Some instances where removal from BCU is possible
- Need to take some inspiration for that
- I personally would advise for more legal code updates to reflect if you want things to be on a rotating basis
- If you want different chair leadership
- That's for you all to make a decision
- If you can weigh the longevity
- If you want certain people to have opportunities
- In terms of making process uniform for everyone, if you're appointed to position, you either resign it or write mechanism for someone to be removed, or write it in a way that allows multiple appointments to happen
- Agree that the process should be made transparent
- To make a long story short, there is legal code supporting a year long appointment process
- Would encourage any official updates if you intend to deviate from that process

Lala

- Want to note there's significant variants form entity to entity in this association
- Things are very interesting in our legal code
- Want to make clear that this interpretation says that a successful piece of legislation in which 6 whereas clauses made clear that the point was to make committee membership from term to quarter, basically means nothing

Harter

- Sounds to me like there's a misalignment in the actions that are being posed and what the legal code literally says
- Legal code needs to be updated to define abilities we're able to take
- Grey area, technically
- Not elucidated or enumerated that we're allowed to do this
- Legal code needs to be updated to fill in that appointment process
- Understand that the entities diverging in their makeup is one thing
- The appointment process, undefined at the moment, lack of our ability to appointment yearly as enumerated in legal code doesn't translate to what we're doing in the moment
- We just need to elucidate this specifically
- Push entire process back
- We're just at a misalignment
- We're trying to do something that's been implied but not necessarily done
- The IVP's discretion after a systematic process for interviewing can stay the same
- The IVP can choose to appoint anyone he wants but after a systemic process has been put in palace
- We should be voting based on that

Sussman

- We're supposed to serve students and we're not doing any of that

Manakova

- Would the best action be to have the chairs in place until the end of winter break?

Lala

- If you want to get rid of these, we'd start off quarter with no chair

Luken

- I think we should move on

- What I said about policy and procedure on the agenda is completely wrong

- All the amendments we advised to staff members, they were decided that we don't have consensus for many things
- ... names, grammar, most important change will be from must to can
- Whether or not committee members need to meet with RCOs and settling for need with disagreement ...
- I promise I just checked, only change made on whole thing
- You can command F on the cap policy
- Any ratification further will be revised, second thoughted, justified next quarter
