A) MEETING BUSINESS

"Before we begin, we call for students to acknowledge that the lands that the University of California locations were built upon were expropriated & founded upon exclusions and erasures of Indigenous people's human rights throughout California. UCSB is built on Chumash Land, specifically that of the non-federally recognized Barbareno tribe. As an association that pushes the student bodies' voices to the forefront, we should aim to make strides past just acknowledgment to those who continue to fight for their right to be recognized & respected as the original stewards of this land. I ask you all to dedicate time & care to personal education & to advocate for justice alongside Indigenous peoples."

A Bill To Update the Legal Code of the Associated Students Pearman Fellowship Program
Sussman - Manakova

Sussman
- Thank you. Hi guys. I don't need to introduce myself, so I was a Pearman fellow last year, and this is a wonderful opportunity for freshmen, for you know, incoming students at UCSB, to get introduced to AS and the fellowship program itself, in legal code right now, as it stands, is very uncoordinated. It's very unclear how to read it, and it simply could use a lot of updating. And there were a lot of issues with honoraria. I'm just kind of reiterating what the preamble of what this bill does is. But I'm introducing this bill to not only recruit more students into AS to clarify what exactly this fellowship does and the timelines that are expected, but it's also a way for students to learn how our association works, and that way, there can be leaders who start out as freshmen and hopefully can become leaders one day in the future of Our association. So I'll pass it back to the chair. I yield back to the chair, but that's what this bill is intended to do. Thank you.

Manakova
- Great work on this. I know he's been working really closely with the president's office, who's usually in charge of the Pearman fellow, and I was also a Pearman fellow. And I definitely see this bill as a way to almost standardize it, the Pearman fellowship, just because I feel like a lot of people, different fellows, had really different experiences. We also just wanted to streamline this and make this something that is actually beneficial to students and actually hold others as organizations accountable. Just giving work to their fellow students and treating them with respect. We also highlighted how important Kelly Pearman is to the Associated Students, and you know how great she was, and just really honoring their family and their work.

Sussman
- Thanks, Senator Jones. So to move forward with this bill in the legislative process, I would welcome a motion to refer this bill to, in my mind, the outreach committee makes the most sense.

Wahidullah
- Before we go into motions, before to any referring to any committees, but is there still opportunity to still like, are we still able to still ask questions, or have still motive discussions, since we haven't made any motions for it yet
- I just wanted to ask, just kind of skimming a little bit more over this, in regards to the pyramid fellowship stuff, just seeing some stuff about honoraria and stuff, I've seen some particular things given that, like, the office must provide $300. Do you know how possibly this could somehow maybe impact, maybe smaller BCUs or tighter budgets and stuff? And do you think that might deter some particular BCUs from participating, or just maybe one's a little bit more difficult, like budgets or something, only the minute concern I had so far and stuff

- Thank you, Senator Jones. So the way that the honorarium system would work. Senator, while you do that is it basically, they would be employed, essentially or not employed, but they would be getting honorary from the office which accepts them. And I don't foresee any issues with BCUs being deterred, considering there were BCUs and offices last year that were giving fellows honoraria, and that simply just wasn't standardized.
- So what we're doing is making it more equitable, essentially giving all fellows the opportunity to apply for honor area and notifying them through this bill that they are eligible for honoraria or $300 of honor area upon completion, because there were offices last year that were giving honoraria, it's simply not fair nor equitable. I hope that answers your question.

Harter

- Yes. Thank you for recognizing me chair. I didn't have anything to speak on in regards to this bill, it looks pretty good. I was actually just motioning to accept a proxy for Senator Noah luken.

A Bill To Update BCU Election Code
Jones- Sussman

Jones

- So today I'm speaking on a bill to update BCU election code, which I coauthored with Senator Sussman. This bill was written in response to the recent compliance investigation in Spring 2025 election process, it became clear that the ability to grant election extensions for BCUs is not actually codified anywhere in legal code, leaving future BC use vulnerable to uncertainty and procedural invalidity and so this bill addresses the gap by clearly defining what counts as starting and completing an election process, explicitly outlining the Senate's authority to grant extensions and clarifying what options are available to BCUs use when things don't go as planned.
- It also streamlines the consultation process for by Law Amendments, cutting down redundant language while maintaining transparency and accountability.

The goal is to prevent any confusion like what we saw last spring, and to give vcu a fair and legally sound pathway forward if delays or issues rise.

- So I'm happy to answer any questions, or if Senator Sussman would like to speak on this issue. As co author, I request that you yield the chair for that purpose

Than

- Because I'm assuming this will end up with the liaison committee in regards to internal Affairs, and I just wanted a little bit of clarification to exactly what you can have changed. I understand the gist of it, and I know you guys took out a lot of like, like jargon that was kind of unnecessary. But in terms of, like, the core process, is it really just like outlining the application process and like the interview process and then what else.
- And it just kind of outlining, like, not punishments, but repercussions if you don't follow the process, because I think they weren't there beforehand

Jones

- I wouldn't say it's necessarily repercussions. It's just allowing more mobility for them to be able to request an extension, because we didn't have the authority codified in legal code to do that previously.
- So now it gives them different options very clearly, of what to do if something arises. You know, things happen. It is during the spring quarter. At the very end, people are busy with finals, and this is just to be able to, I mean, yes, it does, like change a lot of things, but there was a lot of wording that was very contradictory and made it more difficult. So it did not outline the process for starting, initiating the election cycle and what that actually meant. So this is really just to clarify it for the BCUs

- This is not really necessarily about the legislation, because I do think this is really important. I think we definitely need to improve something like this in terms of just how the legal code looks. I was just wondering how much of it is a problem of the actual procedure, and how much of it is a problem that the BCUS don't know the procedure, and they don't adhere to it, and then no one tells them that, because they have the procedure, and maybe they they just don't ever look at it, and no one tells them. And I don't think it might not even be like a procedural problem. It might be like knowledge. I don't know if that helps.

Sussman

- For the sake of Robert's Rules of Order, I like to keep things pertaining to the topic, specifically just the bill. So Senator Jones, you may respond in relation to the bill.

Jones

- Thank you. I think it's a bit of both. To be honest, I think there was a lot of ambiguity with the legal code itself regarding this and regarding the bill. This is just streamlining the process so that they know where to go to find the information, and it lists every single step very clearly.

Wahidullah

- I still think Senator Than had a pretty valid argument. I think communication is still very important. But I just want to say thank you guys again. I think this is still like Senator Dan mentioned, a really good ethical bill that can definitely help just overall, with the entirety of the process of more transparency when it comes to this. But I guess I wanted, after looking over to some more specific questions when it comes to, the retroactive extensions you guys mentioned specifically about, because it does look overall, just some more minute clarifications on legal code. But do you have any better elaboration of what the protocol could be if a BCU requests a retroactive extension and the Senate might possibly deny it? Would that maybe possibly make the BCU completely dissolve? Because I'm just, again, a little bit more concerned when it comes to, like, the forward beginning towards his legal code process, if it harms in any way.

Jones

- The point really isn't to deny them an extension. This is supposed to make it a lot easier for BCUs. We're not supposed to make it harder. We just need to be able to approve it and have a clear deadline on when the elections are going to be finished, so that we can appoint them during the summer session, if for some reason it does get denied, it would be sent to COC

A Resolution To Establish the Temporary "Department of Legacy Gauchos Discovery & Feasibility" Committee

Pascher- Manakova

Pascher

- Good evening, senators and everyone that is in the meeting, it's good to see you guys. Good to see your faces regarding this bill. It's a bit lengthy and wordsy. There is a supplemental document attached, if you look at the document tabs, which you are more than welcome to take a look at. I'll just be kind of going over it briefly. Essentially, this is a resolution to establish a temporary committee that will help Senator manicova and I navigate the process, the extremely complicated and confusing process of establishing a department, a new department for AS
- And as we all know, it's summertime, we're all busy. We have our commitment to the Senate, but we're also, you know, college students at UCSB and we have our own lives to live. So I believe that a committee to look into the feasibility of this project is necessary, as it is a big, big project.
- I don't think that big projects should be wavered or limited by the size that they are, I think that senators should be able to shoot for the stars with their ideas, especially in summer projects. And summertime is a great time to take up some hefty projects. So this resolution kind of just goes along the lines of that per the supplemental document. Just to give you guys a little bit of TLDR, I'll read from the supplemental if that's all right.

- Just very quickly, the resolution creates a temporary committee to explore the feasibility of a permanent department of legacy councils, DLG, a unit within ASUC, SP dedicated to alumni engagement, institutional memory and Student Alumni mentorship. The language of the bill encourages swiftness by outlining the dissolution of the committee through its findings. And with that, I will pass the torch to Sussman

Manakova

- Yeah, I just wanted to commend Senator Pascher for this bill too. She's worked really hard on it. I won't touch up too much, but I just really wanted to highlight, you know, these legacy Gauchos. I'm currently in Sacramento, interning, and I've been meeting assembly members, assembly members, like staffers and other like political advocacy, like lobbyists.
- They're all like gauchos, and they all worked in as and when I had coffee chats with them, they said, You have to be built different to be a part of AS so it's just really this committee is just really accomplishing that goal, to connect these successful AS alumni with you know, students that are seeking to work in their fields in the future. Just this to see if it's feasible and build on systems that the UCS UCSB has already established would be like a great step towards that. Thank you

- Yeah, I just wanted to thank both of the authors of this bill. I think it's a brilliant idea, and I think that the findings are going to be extremely insightful, and something that I hopefully encourage future senators or us, if it's within our power, depending on the time frame of this thing to to actually utilize in the future. I think it's a great idea. I think it's a really good idea. There is, there is something similar that the UCSB, I don't know if it's the administration operates. It’s like a student mentorship program where you can just email previous alumni. It's something, it's very similar to this, but it's much more scaled down than what I assume this is going to be. But I would definitely encourage you guys to look into that, or encourage the committee to look into that in some capacity. I'll give you guys more information on it later.
- I think ideas like this are brilliant, and it just goes to show, it goes to show that you guys are thinking, thinking not just for yourselves, but actually representing the students and their needs. It's really good.

Manakova

- Yeah. I just wanted to, like, address that. I think Gaucho networks has like, an as, like, alumni group chat, but it's very dead. I've reached out to people so the point of this committee isn't really necessarily to establish anything yet it's to see what steps we can do to whether that is, within ourselves

Pascher

- Okay, so I think this, that is a great question, and I'm glad you asked it, because I believe the resolution, the words are slightly confusing. That's why I provided a supplemental document. The technicalities of it is what is confusing about it. S
- o this committee, this temporary committee, this resolution, is not working towards. It's not the end all be all, all the department it's looking into, if this department is feasible. Your concerns may very well be true that it's outside of post graduate recreation programs, out of our Associated Students jurisdiction, but that would be the duty of the temporary committee to find out and ultimately report

Metzger

- Thank you. Hi guys. I haven't read this resolution in full yet, but I just want to say that I am in support of having strong relationships with our alumni, especially our AS alumni. I have a Director of Alumni Affairs in my Cabinet who I just appointed, and I would recommend that she be a part of this committee, and I think in her legal code, it talks about working with staff to update the as alumni, like database, which I don't know how much that has been updated in the past, and then also working with the Alumni Association to do things like AS alumni reunions. I would love for the Director of Alumni Affairs in my cabinet to be involved in this. Thank you.

Wahidullah

- I don't want to holistically, take too much time and stuff like that. I think it's really good initiative and stuff, because similar to what the President mentioned, I think just having holistically, all collaborations between us and using our branch of leadership to support Associated Students. Is very commendable. And simply wanted to extend like an invitation, if you ever need some help and support when it comes to creating the feasibility in the committee, all other communities are more than willing to help support with that as well, as well as individuals too, whenever, if you need any resources or anything you like, just wanted to reach out and stuff. Thank you

A Bill to Update the Legal Code of the Office of the President
Jones- Sussman

Sussman

- Wonderful. Thank you. So this bill is pretty straightforward. The bill says it does what it does. This bill was at the request of President Metzger, and it's basically just updating language pertaining to each of the officers roles within the assoc office. It's not fully sent to committee or Liaison Committee, where it'll be further refined and be put into work with the President assoc office.

Metzger

- Thank you, and thank you for adding this to the agenda. Today, I'll just highlight the main changes of the bill for the legal code of the Office of the President. So the two of the main changes are adding the Academic Affairs Commissioner and the facilities commissioners to sit in the ASAP staff. These two positions are members of the President's cabinet, and typically members of the President's Cabinet who don't chair their own committee, such as Director of Alumni Affairs and the CFO, sit on it ASAP staff. And so these two positions, who either don't currently have a staff, a committee that the chair or the committee that they chair, is eventually going to be dissolved, slash has been inactive because of that.
- They're not going to sit in the assoc staff to have more involvement in a kind of. Ability. And then additionally, I'll be adding Special Projects coordinators to the ASAP staff, and the number will be at the discretion of the president. And this just allows more flexibility and capability for the President to have support to fulfill projects and platform goals that they see as necessary.
- So those are the main changes. And then throughout, are just some small adjustments to various positions, edits to grammar, things like that, pretty standard. Thank you.

1. Eddie Barajas

My name is Eddie Barajas, and I'm here to request for $5,000 in funding for a special event that we're planning on October 6. I'm working with Jesse Penex, and we're starting a new campus organization dedicated to starting a student motivated speaker series on campus for free with for the student body, we have an exciting opportunity to host California Congressman Carbajal for an interview style event at Campbell Hall in this fall to kick off our speaker series. It'll be educational free for all UCSB students to engage with and with their representative that represents California and Santa Barbara. Normally, we would go through FMB for this process. However, because our organization has yet to be registered as an RCO in the fall for a full quarter, we're bringing this request directly to the Senate. The $5,000 will cover the labor costs for Campbell Hall, basic audio and visual equipment and any additional security measures that may be required. In coordination with their team, we're currently working with to finalize all the logistics. We've got the date secured, and we're just seeking funding so that we can put on the event and be open to any questions.

I-6) Executive Office(r)s' Report - Le Anh Metzger
Metzger

- I can give you guys a quick report on what I've been working on this summer. It's good to see everyone again. So some of the main things that I've been up to, I just filled my office and my cabinet, and I am also planning the AS one leadership retreat of Save the date was just sent out for that. It's going to be Sunday and Monday of week 0. So that's September 21 and September 22 Yeah, the Save today has gone out. Please mark your calendars. Attendance is mandatory, and I hope all of you will be there the whole time, and more information about the schedule and RSVPs will be coming soon. Another date that I'd love for you all to put in your calendar, which I will be sending an official save the date for, probably on Friday is the AS kickoff event. So this is going to be hosted by all the executive offices and the Committee on committees, and that's going to be the Friday of week one, so October 3. And it's going to be a really great opportunity for all of AS to come together show what we do, table, free, food, music, all the things.
- And I would really strongly encourage the Senate to have a table at this event. So I think believe that would be like outreach committee, but maybe make some plans to get a tablecloth, get some materials together on how students can come to the Senate, get engaged, speak out at public forum, things like that, because this is going to be a really awesome opportunity to do that student outreach.

- Some other things I've been working on are the updates to the pyramid Fellowship Program, which you guys talked about. Talked about today, short term and long term improvements to the AS main space. And I'll just take this as an opportunity to remind you all that it is a shared space, and it's our responsibility to clean up after ourselves. We are all adults here. We should be able to do that. So whenever you're in AS main Just don't forget that. Don't leave food in the fridge for too long. And make sure to keep the windows closed in your Senate office, because there are animals and they will come inside if you don't do that. So definitely be wary of that. Don't leave food out things like that.
- Some I'm working on some other kind of internal things, like I've been working with COC to improve and reinvigorate the quarterly chairs meeting structure, and I've also been continuing collaborations with standing together against sexual assault on their raise the bar project that addresses the link between alcohol and consumption and sexual assault.
- And then I also reviewed applications and made nominations for judicial council openings, which has been which I notified the liaison committee about, and something else that I wanted to address right now is the notice from President Drake about the ban on boycotts that target a specific country. I just want to bring that all to your attention, if you haven't seen anything about that yet. And I also just want to let you all know that I am working with the other UC presidents to communicate with the UC Office of the President about this matter and encourage better communication and collaboration. As well as making sure to emphasize the importance of student government autonomy and financial autonomy. So yeah, that wraps up my report, and I will be taking questions if anyone has any

- Okay, hello, President Metzger, thank you for coming tonight and giving your report. I was just wondering if any of the meetings that you're having with any of the other UC presidents are open to be sat in on, or are they private? I'd be curious to join one, if that is something that's available.

Metzger

- Yeah. So as of now, everything that we've liked, the coordination between us has been informal, but there will soon be an official meeting of the UC Council of Presidents. This includes all nine undergraduate presidents, and plus all the graduate counts the graduate student presidents. And so that will be like the official body, like the UC Council of Presidents, that will start meeting over the summer. I'm not actually sure if this is open to the public. I can check on that and get back to you all.

Specifically we'll be starting, I believe, our meetings next week and stuff. And currently, right now, we're going to be beginning training around five on Friday and stuff. And currently, right now, as of our current action items for the entirety of the summer, so far, we've been completing a recruitment process. We completed our tracker process, and so far, currently having updates and interactions between staff and bcus and simply coordinating a better, just pilot program models before the fall quarter starts and us to have more, not only with the committee, but overall, better engagement just with the Senate body, between all the entities, and starting to promote more events for the fall, promoting more things, just to help, hopefully to communicate just with all entities better.
- I'll probably send a better report on the next opportunity or meeting soon, but just want to give an update that we'll be starting meetings next week, and we're starting just our pilot programs this summer in between the fall.

M) Appointments and Resignations

Than

- Since we're in discussion, I do have some questions or concerns about the Senate liaison committee appointments and resignations concerning the resignation of our chair. I was told that with the resignation of our chair, I would be appointed as chair. But I recognize that one of our other senators in our committee, Senator Wahidullah has just been doing so much work, and she's more suited for the chair position just given the AS work that she's done and prior connections, and how she's already, like she made our 17 page strategic plan, and we, I was just told that she's not allowed to directly be appointed to become chair. And I just wanted clarification on that, because it regardless, we're going to make her chair if it's this quarter, or if it's the fall quarter, which was when I was told we're allowed to do it, I just feel like it's kind of pointless, that if we could do it now, instead of like me being appointed and then resigning and all of that. Thank you.

Sussman

- Per standing policy nine in legal code, it is the way that succession of chairship for each committee is if the Vice Chair succeeds the resignation of the chair. And in that case, you would succeed the chair for the summer quarter. But since the bees, since committees are now on quarterly rotation, it would effectively mean that you would be chair for the summer, and we could reconsider in fall. But I hope that answers your question.

Harter

- So I was under the impression that the that Senator that assuming that the position obviously would be the that chair spot, and then, if Senator Dan chose to object, then the the next option would be for a set, or the next possible, like it is possible for senators to simply a motion to appoint someone else to that position.
- So, like the IVP gets the premier option of like, the first option of choosing who gets to a point, but if those persons decide to object, or if those ones get denied, then that, then it doesn't say anywhere in legal code that someone else can't make a motion to appoint someone else, if that makes sense.
- So I think Senator Sussman kind of answers the question, but to hit the nail directly on the head, I think that's the answer to your question.

Sussman

- I can give a recommendation, or, technically, I will remain impartial. I There's two options that we can do here. One is to bundle and approve all appointments today, and it stays with Senator Than as Chair for the rest of the summer and Senator Wahidullah as vice chair. And we come back to relook at the chairship of the Liaison Committee in the fall quarter. Or the alternative today is we bundle and approve the rest of the appointments with the exclusion of the Senate Liaison Committee, and we table it to the next meeting, effectively having time for internal vice president Lalla to make those decisions on his end, as I'm not at the jurisdiction to have that change, so I'll welcome Senator Wahidullah to speak

Wahidullah

- Just wanted to make a small point of information or question. Could the attorney general possibly clarify about this specific matter before we go into any further amendment motions and stuff?

Attorney General Iden

- just going to briefly outline the process for you guys, as most of you guys probably already know if you were, if you wanted to do chairship, you had to get the internal vice president to conduct an interview process. If you wanted a chairship, you engaged in that. And so the only person who can appoint chairs and vice chairs is the internal vice president. The Senate cannot unilaterally select their own chairs. So when it comes to your question on if the person doesn't want to take the chairs or actually, I'll step back for a second. So say the chair resigns. The vice chair does not automatically become the chair. They just assume the duties of the chair until a new chair is appointed.

- Ideally, the Vice Chair is the second choice, so you would appoint them in most scenarios. But the vice chair does not have to take the chairship. In the same sense, the Senate could just choose to confirm the appointment and make the Vice Chair chair, but that wouldn't make a lot of sense if they don't want it. It's like, why would you guys choose to appoint them? So if they don't want it, I would recommend not confirming it. In this sense, I think you should just bring it back to the IVP. You can approve all other appointments and resignations, so if there's any on the agenda, and just come back to it until it's clarified. But at this point in time, if the chair wants to resign, you could confirm that resignation, but the vice chair would assume the duties in the meantime. But if you don't want to, you don't have to.

Sussman

- I would make, I suggest a motion to strike the appointment of Senator than as chair

Attorney General Iden

- I wouldn't necessarily recommend striking the appointments. You could just leave them on the agenda, and when you have more information, come back to it, just so it's a little more procedurally correct, so you're not like making. A decision right now without consulting the IVP. So you can just not honestly don't have to do anything or just table into the next meeting. You can accept the resignation, like I said, but I wouldn't necessarily recommend striking them in the meantime. But you won't be able to appoint Senator Wahidullah as the vice chair right now, because technically Senator Than would still be the vice chair. If you guys have any other questions, let me know. Thank you.

- Okay, so just to, just to clarify, if the chair decides to resign, which we would be effectively approving and this, and the previous motion that I made, that would mean that the Vice Chair, the new chair, would be Senator Than, and then the vice chair would become Senator Wahidullah And based on what, based on. Attorney General, If someone decides to resign, and then the duties of the chair, would fall to the Vice Chair. So if, when you're looking at all of the variables that we have at hand, we have a chair that doesn't that is no longer willing to do the chair position. We have a vice chair that is no longer that has made it clear that she doesn't want to take on the chair position. So then the liaison committee would be effectively run by a person who does not want to do that job anymore. So if you go with the motion that I suggested, then you're you're at least putting one person who is capable, who wants to do the job, and at least the vice chair position, which means that's which means that the liaison committee will at least be like de jure, run by the people, by people who want to do the job and who are capable of doing the job.
- So bring it all correctly. But that's why the motion that I put forth, I think, is the best way to go, and next week, or whenever we meet again, if the chair, the Vice Chair, and all all stakeholders in this question have met with the IVP and decided that they want to rearrange the positions, then so be it.
- But that means that until then, if we go with what I said officially, at least there is a person who wants to do the job and who's capable of doing the job, who has stated that they want to do the job, that's going to be in at least a position to do the job. If that all makes sense, I yield, by the way.

- I'm so sorry I'm not finishing this discussion, just so that I can make it clear we're just re we're removing the liaison stuff for we're tabling it for a different meeting where we can talk with the IVP and we can get that settled. So right now, the chair has not resigned, and I'm still Vice Chair. Is that correct? If we, if this, if we go into call to question and it gets approved,

Sussman

- But that doesn't mean that's effectively the title and role responsibilities that you guys have. That doesn't mean that you can't do the work that you guys are willing to do. You'll effectively keep the title, and this will be done at a different time. We could also accept the resignation. As you see, Attorney General Iden is saying in the chat, we can accept the resignation as a separate motion in an item
